Arpin Van Lines, Inc., Honors its Agency Family During its 2007 Annual Agent Convention

East Greenwich, RI - Arpin Van Lines held its Annual Agent Convention at the Westin La Paloma Resort & Spa in Tucson, Arizona, October 21 through October 25. Several international agents joined the domestic agents as members of Arpin's Prime Agency Family were honored for their accomplishments.

Eleven agents were recognized for their dedicated and faithful relationship of between 10 and 25 years with Arpin Van Lines. Several agents also received awards for their hauling and booking accomplishments. In addition, awards were distributed to agents with top national account, military and COD sales volumes.

Several special awards were presented to Arpin Prime Agents. Arpin Van Lines named McLure Moving and Storage, located in Essex Junction, Vt., as its Best New Prime Agent of the year. Hampton Roads Moving & Storage of Chesapeake and Hampton, Va. and Arpin of San Francisco of Livermore, Calif., were named Best Military Agents, Eastern Region and Western Region, respectively. For his ongoing efforts supporting his community and a variety of humanitarian causes, Red Byboth of Dallas Moving & Storage, located in Wylie, Texas received the 2007 Humanitarian Award. Personally selected by Mr. Paul Arpin, Chairman of the Board, P & S Moving & Storage of Westland, Michigan was the recipient of the prestigious Paul Arpin Award for their outstanding commitment to and relationship with the Van Line, the Agency Family and drivers.

38 members of Arpin's Agency Family were recognized as Quality Agents for the high level of professional service provided to customers. In addition, 9 agents were designated as Arpin ACES (Agents Committed to Excellent Service) at this year's convention.

The top award, 2007 Prime Agent of the Year, was presented to Capitol Moving & Storage of Lakewood, Washington. David Arpin, President and CEO of Arpin Van Lines, praised the management and staff of Capitol Moving & Storage for their commitment to quality, relationship with other members of the agency and driver families, and overall growth over the past year.

"Capitol Moving & Storage epitomizes the qualities we expect from all of our agents," said David Arpin. "Their selection as Prime Agent of the Year is indicative of our ongoing emphasis to provide the highest level of service to our customers."
