ARPIN GROUP WINS PARAGON MOVING SUPPLIER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Paragon Global Resources Honors Arpin Companies for “Superior Service, Visionary Leadership and Customer-Driven Excellence”

EAST GREENWICH, R.I. (May 21, 2007) – Arpin Group, Inc., a leader in international and domestic household goods forwarding, won the 2006 Moving Supplier of the Year award presented this month by Paragon Global Resources, Inc. Arpin Group, Inc., is the holding company for Arpin International Group and Arpin Van Lines.

“We are honored to have received this recognition from Paragon,” said David Arpin, President and CEO of Arpin Group, Inc. “The core of our business is outstanding people. Our representatives truly care about their customers and it is their dedicated service that establishes our organization as a leader in the industry.”

“We extend our congratulations and gratitude for the results, service and teamwork Arpin Group has provided Paragon and our mutual clients and customers,” said Joseph Morabito, President and CEO of Paragon Global Resources, Inc. “It is only through Arpin’s contributions that we can commit ourselves to the excellent service our industry demands.”

In the spring of each year, Paragon thoroughly evaluates its suppliers from the previous year and recognizes those who have demonstrated visionary leadership, customer-driven excellence and a focus on results, while creating value. These top-performing suppliers are awarded Paragon’s Acclaimed Certificate of Excellence (ACE) designation.

The award comes at a time when Arpin Group has realigned its domestic and international functions to streamline operations and sales while creating a single point of contact for customers.
